ALL STUDENTS AT UCSD

SUBJECT: Student Run Television (SRTV)

On Thursday night, a deeply offensive and hurtful program was aired on Student Run Television (SRTV), a service of the Associated Students. The content of this program does not represent the views of the Associated Students, and was aired by KoalaTV, the television show put on by the student organization The Koala. We condemn the actions of The Koala, its program and its content.

The Koala was not properly authorized to display content on SRTV. We are in the process of determining how the program was aired. In the meantime, as authorized by the ASUCSD Standing Rules, and in conjunction with our Associate Vice President of Student Services, I turned off the station to allow for a review of its Charter. We will only open it again when we can be sure that such hateful content can never be aired again on our student funded TV station.

Alongside this initiative, I have frozen all student media organization funding. The Koala has long since been a controversial publication at UC San Diego and is primarily funded by our student fees. I do not believe we should continue funding this organization with our fees.

We must develop effective policies to ensure that our fees do not go to the support the hateful speech that targets members of our community. I ask that those media organizations that did nothing wrong and are unfairly affected to be patient until we can resolve this situation and develop new funding bylaws for our Association.

To this end, I have charged a campus-wide committee to review the funding of student media. This committee is open to every member of the UC San Diego community - faculty, staff, students, and whoever else feels strongly about this issue. The committee shall meet on Thursday, at 8:00PM, in the 4th floor Price Center Forum. Feel free to email me at aspresident@ucsd.edu if you have any questions.

The Associated Students stands in solidarity with those affected by Thursday night's program, and we remain committed to being the voice for all UC San Diego students.

Utsav Gupta
Associated Students President

All, I know you are expecting and awaiting more information about next steps as the campus comes to grips with our climate concerns illuminated by our BSU and other activist students. Be assured that much is going on behind the scenes to place the campus in the best place going forward.

We've been working hard all week to dot the Is and cross the Ts on the administrative commitments, and that document will become public shortly—early next week, I believe. At that time, the commitments we are responsible for will be very clear. We are making great progress with our students who continue to assist in yield efforts and the early calling campaign, and the Black Life Book has gone to press. We have met with African American community leaders to listen to their concerns and suggestions.

Student Affairs will continue to forge ahead on additional ideas that we have for improving climate, including student leader training, intergroup dialogue, bystander training, enhanced orientation, more prominent bias reporting, and greater academic connections, including the very real possibility of a University wide course.

That's the good news. We also continue to respond to mounting pressure from a variety of sources outside the university that threaten our ability to lead, and that has consumed and will continue to consume most of my time and energy.

- State legislators are planning for a forum on Addressing Intolerance in Higher Education aimed specifically at us.
http://democrats.assembly.ca.gov/members/a52/News_Room/Press/20100310AD52PR01.aspx
- The speaker of the State Senate has asked for a response to a detailed set of questions about campus policies, investigations, and sanctions regarding acts of racism and vandalism.
- The Justice Department Office of Civil Rights has initiated an inquiry.

On the other hand, conservative groups are criticizing us for our handling of the campus media and have expressed concerns about possible violations of Prop 209. These include:

- Pacific Legal Foundation
- ACLU
- FIRE
- Student Press Law Center

Utsav has worked tirelessly to find a way to disestablish the AS relationship with the Koala, but a concerted effort by other media groups and the spotlight of upcoming elections has hampered his efforts. I cannot tell you how bad a black eye it is for the University that we do not seem to have the power to cut our ties to this body. If you have any influence with campus media groups who fear for their continued funding, anything you can do would be valuable to reassure them that if they care about the University, it would be helpful for them to look at the bigger picture, and that their funding will be secure going forward once we have weathered this difficult patch.

Thanks for all that you are doing to connect with students who are struggling or confused, or who need help in understanding what the larger issues are. This is a time where Student Affairs can come to the forefront in helping our university move forward, and I will count on all of you to help. Please keep me posted on issues that you think I should be aware of. Best, Penny

David:

If you have the time for a conversation over coffee, I can share with you the legally sound methods that both Dan Park, the campus counsel, and I have advised student leaders to consider in order to discontinue student government funding of the Koala. I would appreciate hearing your thoughts on the subject.

David, we could use your help; I am as distressed as you. We're working very closely with Campus Counsel on this one and looking for creative solutions. It's a political battle within the Associated Students right now and elected members are not anxious to alienate all the other publications by the legal viewpoint neutral remedies they have. If you've got a creative legal solution, we'd love to hear it. Best, Penny

Dear Vice Chancellor Rue,

Some of my colleagues have been distressed to learn that the Koala is still supported by student fees. There seems to be a significant difference between censorship and subsidy. There might be constitutional problems with outright censorship of discriminatory speech or hate speech, though even this is debatable. But it seems easier to justify refusal to subsidize discriminatory or hate speech that violates UCSD Principles of Community. Back in 2006 Larry Alexander, who is a constitutional scholar at USD Law School, and I held a panel discussion at the UCSD Cross-Cultural Center on the limits of discriminatory speech. Larry and I have very different views and disagree about the permissibility of censoring hate speech, but we were agreed that even if hate speech cannot be censored it does not need to be subsidized if it violates campus principles of nondiscrimination. Description of Incident: The Koala is a newspaper that is solely meant to cause hatred. As a victim of rape and a minority in UCSD, I no longer feel safe on campus. I'm utterly offended by the content in the newspaper. I will not mention specifics, but I urge you to read the newspaper yourself. I am honestly shocked that a portion of my tuition is dedicated to printing out this newspaper.

How would you like the University to respond: Stop the Koala.

Description of Incident: The UCSD Koala has been known for producing hate speech toward student demographics that are extremely triggering and frequently make me feel unsafe on this campus. Last night they released an article on thekoala.org that mocked students' need for safe spaces, and included allusions to sexual violence and racist acts. Last week they also released an article slandering, objectifying, and threatening to black women. And as a black woman it has made me and others in my community feel threatened.

How would you like the University to respond: I would like to see UCSD dismantle The Koala immediately. While I understand the need to protect free speech, this institution is choosing to promote hate speech on this campus. For many many MANY people, UCSD already feels unwelcoming. It is painful to read threats against my body made in a school-funded newspaper. It's gross and terrifying, and extremely bad for incoming students on tours who get handed the paper and are taught that UCSD is a prejudiced institution from The Koala.

Description of Incident: It isn't really an "incident" as it is an ongoing problem. I am reporting the Koala, because I was told the more voices you hear from, the better. This newspaper has offended me, and all of my teammates alike, and anyone else I have told. I read this "satirical" newspaper and did not laugh once. Having UCSD fund a newspaper that tells women to get fat if they don't want to get raped, or tells black people that they could learn to swim by being "face down in a prison shower" is a disgrace.

How would you like the University to respond: I have never been ashamed of anything that university represents, except for this. Maybe you'd argue that the university doesn't represent it or support it. But giving it funds is doing just that, and us being public means the government supports it too. Pull the funds, and make them turn to personal donations if they want to continue this nonsense. They have the UC stamp/icon on the paper. UCSD already has a bad racial climate and this is an obvious contributor that can be eradicated.

Other information about the Victim: I know that it is hard to get around the freedom of speech obstacle. But saying that we cannot take away their funding is incorrect. In my research of The Koala's history, funding was pulled from the paper by an AS vote. Why can we not renew that vote and decide against the funding? I think it's plausible. This paper being racist is not just an opinion, it is a fact. Look at the history of its editors, one having infamously called "BSU and its allies a bunch of ungrateful ners". Coincidence?

Perceived Basis of Incident | Other :

Description of Incident: A newspaper supported by UCSD, The Koala, is clearly defying the Integrity Policy that all Tritons are required to abide. I am extremely bothered to witness such hatred expressed in a newspaper supported by UCSD. This needs to be solved. I am not paying this school to promote hatred and fund The Koala. The evidence is easily accessible at thekoala.org.

How would you like the University to respond: The University needs to immediately take the initiative to end any hate speech, actions, or crimes that offend any groups represented on campus. Students participating in The Koala should not be able to share their newspapers with the UCSD students on Library

Walk if it defies on our UCSD's "main rules" as understood from the Integrity Policy. I demand an end to this newspaper.

Description of Incident: The Koala has recently published a new newsletter that is ruining the campus climate and making me and other students feel unsafe at this university. I believe that while the Koala has the freedom of speech on the campus, they are in violation of the principles of community in providing an inclusive space for people. Their student body consists of primarily white heterosexual people and they continue to oppress students that are already underrepresented on this campus with continuous hate speech

How would you like the University to respond: I believe the University has a very important role in creating a positive campus climate where all students feel welcomed on this campus. I believe the administration needs to shut down the Koala as they have notoriously been discriminating against minorities since their conception. I believe that they should be held to the same standard that greek institutions are held and if they are unable to uphold the principles of community, they should not be a registered organization at UC San Diego.

Thank you. And I appreciate your and the administration's effort. But, I hope you take into account that this statement that Khosla made does nothing. Everyone already knew the University administration does not "approve" of it. And we know that the administration itself does not fund the Koala, but rather the students (which is even more troubling). AS decides where to allocate money. They seemed to have voted to get the funds for the Koala, they can surely take them away. I know you can't take them away based on content (under 1st amendment), but I would say we have a strong argument when considering that this is hate speech. The definition: hate speech is any speech, gesture or conduct, writing, or display which is forbidden because it may INCITE violence or prejudicial action against or by a protected individual or group, or because it disparages or intimidates a protected individual or group. You and I both know this qualifies. And I'm sure you know all of the things I am telling you already! Just know, unless this post is followed up by something, it'll just be another pointless public affairs attempt at calming the masses of people offended by it. And it won't succeed. Please let me know if there is anything further (other than filing a complaint) that I can do to get my voice heard. And, how would one find out who funds The Koala outside of AS? How do we find out what donors are investing in the paper? Is it private information?

Thank you!!
[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

We agree that the Koala is extremely offensive on every front. The Chancellor and other senior administrators have issued a statement here:

http://ucsdnews.ucsd.edu/pressrelease/statement_denouncing_koala_publication_from_uc_san_diego_administration

We have forwarded your complaint along with others to the Vice Chancellor of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion and to the Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs. I know that they will be discussing what further action could be taken.

We really appreciate your concerns and thank you for your part in promoting the elimination of hate and bias at UCSD.

Sincerely,

Description of Incident: It isn't really an "incident" as it is an ongoing problem. I am reporting the Koala, because I was told the more voices you hear from, the better. This newspaper has offended me, and all of my teammates alike, and anyone else I have told. I read this "satirical" newspaper and did not laugh once. Having UCSD fund a newspaper that tells women to get fat if they don't want to get raped, or tells black people that they could learn to swim by being "face down in a prison shower" is a disgrace.

How would you like the University to respond: I have never been ashamed of anything that university represents, except for this. Maybe you'd argue that the university doesn't represent it or support it. But giving it funds is doing just that, and us being public means the government supports it too. Pull the funds, and make them turn to personal donations

Good evening,

It has recently come to my attention that the newspaper/magazine/publication (??) Koala is actually funded by Associated Students. I first encountered this publication on library walk. This guy was handing them out and I saw many people saying no to him. I didn't know what it was but I felt bad everyone was rejecting him and I accepted one. I flipped through it as I walked to class and I was disgusted. The images were graphic and inappropriate. The writing was offensive. I immediately threw it away. Knowing that my school is funding such a heinous magazine is not okay and I stand by my fellow students to get it off this campus. Please please cease funding for this awful publication.

Colleagues:

Last night, the Associated Students (AS) voted to discontinue funding publications of media student organizations. Students on campus have expressed their disapproval of the Koala and Associated Students (AS) funding of student organization publications.

The Campus Counsel has made it clear the university must use "viewpoint neutral" criteria in allocating resources to student organizations. AS cannot decline a request to fund an event or publication of a particular student organization because of its viewpoint. AS did not do that last night. AS adopted a blanket restriction on a type of student organization expenditure it will not fund. For example, some student governments do not accept funding requests for equipment, travel, and food. The student government at SDSU does not accept requests for publications. Last night, AS voted to do the same.

Presently, thirteen student organizations are registered as media students organizations. The names of these organizations are available on the student organization directory (see link below). One organization, the Muir Quarterly, is linked to an undergraduate college, which has the option to fund this publication. The Saltman Quarterly is linked to an academic department, and the Medical Literature Society and Undergraduate Research Journal may be linked to departments as well. The departments affiliated with these organizations may choose to fund these publications.
