

Destroying white privilege

- Understand that you're actually a racist/bigot for not believing that white privilege exists
- Ignore the same old stupid moral high ground rant for the next 10 minutes
- Tell the social justice warrior, "Hold on a second, and hear me out."
- First thing to understand is that statistical disparity does NOT mean discrimination
 - For example, "A whopping portion of the NBA are tall black men and not 5'9" Jews. That is not because there is some sort of institutional conspiracy to keep short Jews out of the NBA." - Ben Shapiro
- There is one basic principle to be understood about every corner of the US and that is meritocracy rules, from sports, to academia, to the workplace.
- Financials
 - The only color that capitalism cares about is green. Not black, white, or what have you.
 - Capitalism kills discrimination on the basis that when a business decides to discriminate, he/she/they will lose good employees, consumers and put themselves at a disadvantage on the marketplace.
 - Banks don't discriminate. If they did, they would go bankrupt because banks who would cater to minorities would dominate the market
 - University of Iowa sociologist Sarah Harkness found that banks lent to black females at the same rate as they do to white males
- Workplace
 - Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
 - ERACE - Eradicating Racism And Colorism from Employment
 - This is program goes out of its way to fight individual racist and put them out of business. Where is the white privilege?
- Education
 - Affirmative action programs are designed in a way that allow minorities with lower scores to take slots from students with higher scores. If white privilege is sitting out of a college education because you're white, intelligent and rich then who would want to be part of the white privilege class?
- Crime
 - "White officers shoot black individuals for no reason." False. Here's why.
 - More white people die at the hands of police officers than black people do.

- Blacks are more likely to be shot than white people on a percentage basis, but police are less likely to shoot black people in the same circumstance
- Look at the murder rate in the black community which is significantly higher than the murder rate in the white community. Use these statistics rather than the general statistics -- you'll find that police officers over represent the amount of whites that they kill rather than the amount of blacks that they kill. In essence, you're actually more likely to be killed if you're white based on the circumstance.
- Crack-cocaine disparity is a simplistic argument. It's easier to distribute, sell and get high off of crack than it is cocaine. It's all about accessibility and convenience. Generally speaking, the individuals who are going to be caught with crack are going to be low-class individuals. Let the statistics speak for themselves.
- There was a campaign by black, white, democratic, and republican inner city legislators to get rid crack in the inner cities BECAUSE powder cocaine was non-existent.
- In 1995 the Justice Department found that more whites had been accused of more felonies in the 75 largest cities than any other minority. If anything, under policing in inner city neighborhoods is the issue, not over policing.
- Poverty
 - Brookings Institute (Very far Leftist research institute) did a study and found that in order to stay out of permanent poverty you (1) get a high school diploma, (2) get a job and (3) don't have a kid before you get married.
 - Did you know..? The black community is responsible for having the highest single mother rate and the highest high school dropout rate compared to any other group in the country.
 - In 1960 the black single motherhood rate was 20%, today it is upwards of 80%. Let the stats there speak for themselves.
 - It goes both ways. Poor whites, latinos, asians, etc, are below the poverty line because they are having children at young ages and not graduating high school. It is not a race specific thing.
 - Personal responsibility. Things need to change inside the INNER CITY community if these statistics are going to change.
 - What is going on with inner city culture? This is a question that passionate Leftists always have trouble answering.
- Destroying leftist bullshit evidence

- Michael Brown. Understand the facts based witness testimony. All witnesses, by the way, are black.
- M. Brown robbed a store, punched a police officer, wrestled the officer for his gun in which it went off, he charged the officer which then resulted in his shooting and death. Need not to say more.
 - This was according to the witnesses testimony
- Trayvon Martin. Once again understand the facts based on witness testimony.
- Trayvon Martin was on top of George Zimmerman slamming his head into the ground resulting in the shooting and death of Trayvon Martin. Zimmerman was also Latino, not white. He is actually part white, but mostly Latino. I cannot find out exactly what those proportions are but if you look at pictures of Zimmerman, it's easy to tell.
 - Leftists will try and say that he's either white OR, and yes what you're about to read does happen, they will form their argument in a fashion that claims that the racially white characteristics of him granted immunity from law, hence, white privilege. False. Latino/white people are not some rare, endangered species that scour the wild and are immune to the law.
 - There are Latino/white people everywhere, and for the most part you can never tell unless they are disproportionately white. This is how genetics and mixing of different races work.
- Liberals will make up their own subjective truths to their own convenience to prove you wrong. Their personal truths are not THE truth. There is only the truth and bullshit.
- Take the liberal tears from the idiot you just destroyed in your debate, disassemble your American made Springfield M1911 .45 caliber handgun and apply the tears in order to clean the mechanism, reassemble and proceed to purchase ANTIFA and ISIS hunting permits and max out on tags
