Dear Board of Trustees:

The Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression (FIRE), a nonpartisan nonprofit that defends free speech, writes today to urge the Park Township Board of Trustees to review and revise its public comment policies that infringe the rights of its residents. Both a 2021 federal appellate court ruling and the recent settlement of FIRE’s First Amendment lawsuit against the City of Eastpointe, Michigan, underscore the need for the Park Township Board of Trustees to make the necessary policy revisions.

The First Amendment protects speech by members of the public at government meetings.<sup>1</sup> The public comment period is, at a minimum, a limited public forum, which means the government may restrict the content of commenters’ speech only when those restrictions are viewpoint-neutral and reasonable in light of the forum’s purpose.<sup>2</sup> While municipal bodies can prohibit genuinely disruptive conduct—such as speaking out of turn or making true threats<sup>3</sup>—they cannot stretch the meaning of disruption to encompass constitutionally protected speech.

The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit—whose decisions bind the Park Township Board of Trustees—made this clear in 2021 when its decision in Ison v. Madison Local School District Board of Education invalidated bans on “antagonistic,” “abusive,” and “personally directed” public comments at local government meetings.<sup>4</sup> As the Sixth Circuit explained, such restrictions impose “impermissible viewpoint discrimination” by prohibiting nondisruptive speech “purely because it disparages or offends.”<sup>5</sup>

<sup>3</sup> A “true threat” is a statement through which “the speaker means to communicate a serious expression of an intent to commit an act of unlawful violence to a particular individual or group of individuals.” Virginia v. Black, 538 U.S. 343, 359 (2003).

FIRE put those principles into practice when it filed suit on behalf of four Eastpointe, Michigan residents against the city and its mayor, Monique Owens, after she repeatedly prohibited them from criticizing her during the public comment period of City Council meetings. The November 2022 suit challenged not only the constitutionality of Mayor Owens’ actions but also Eastpointe’s policy barring public comments “directed” at an individual council member.

In April 2024, Eastpointe reached a settlement with the residents that required the City Council to refrain from enforcing its unconstitutional ban on public comments directed at council members; to allow members of the public to criticize Eastpointe officials; to pay damages and attorneys’ fees totaling $83,000; and to apologize to its censored residents.<sup>6</sup> Eastpointe citizens are now free to express even severe criticism of public officials at City Council meetings without facing unlawful censorship.

As the Park Township Board of Trustees maintains similarly unconstitutional public comment policies, FIRE strongly urges the Board to reform these policies and avoid costly and time-consuming litigation.

In particular, Township policy states that “[t]he presiding member of a Township Board or Commission may interrupt, warn, or terminate an individual’s presentation when the presentation . . . is personally directed, abusive, [or] obscene.”<sup>7</sup> Fortunately, the Board can easily take the necessary steps to remedy this policy’s legal shortcomings and safeguard its residents’ First Amendment rights. FIRE would welcome the opportunity to work with the Board toward full First Amendment compliance, as we have successfully done with local governments in Michigan and across the country.<sup>8</sup>

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
