

Welcome! You have accessed the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's incident reporting, or UNL (University of Nebraska-Lincoln) Report. UNL (University of Nebraska-Lincoln) Report expands the methods by which any member of the university community can share matters they feel need to be elevated or addressed. While anonymous reporting is an option, please be aware that should you wish to remain anonymous we cannot provide you a follow-up. Therefore, some form of contact information is beneficial.

If this is an emergency or incident in progress now, STOP and immediately call the Police at 911 or University Police at 402-472-2222 (2-2222 on campus).

This is not a 911 or emergency reporting site. Reports submitted through this service may not receive an immediate response. If you are seeing an incident in progress, or have been a victim of a safety or security incident, call UNL Police at 402-472-2222 (2-2222 on campus) or 911 immediately.

A climate-based concern can include actions that discriminate, stereotype, exclude, or harasses anyone in our community based on their identity (such as race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, disability, age, or religion). Concerns may stem from fear, misunderstanding, hatred, or stereotypes. Behaviors may be intentional or unintentional. Climate concerns may not classify as a compliance violation but do counter our core values and beliefs.
