Transit Advertising

Campus Services offers the ability to advertise through our Shuttles and Transportation department.

Who Can Advertise?

Tulane University departments, academic units, centers, campus events and recognized student organizations may purchase advertising space on a first-come first-served basis.

- Ads must follow the guidelines set forth within the Tulane University Public Posting, Advertising and Solicitation Policies.
- The department or organization sponsoring the event must have its name and contact information (phone number, e-mail or website and/or postal address) visible on the ad.
- Advertising of events that serve alcohol must be handled in a responsible manner without promotion of excessive drinking.
- Overt or covert reference or illustration to alcohol is prohibited. Advertising events in which alcohol will be served must follow the Student Guide to the Tulane Alcohol Beverage Policy as set forth by the university and approved by the university senate.
- Publicity must not degrade groups or individuals.
The Office of University Services reserves the right to reject
