Dear Mr. Lukianoff:

I write with reference to your recent letter addressed to President Lou Anna K. Simon in which you express concern over the Student Accountability in Community (SAC) program. Insofar as your comments raise questions about communications by staff persons at a conference held in Clearwater, Florida, more than four years ago, a substantive reply will not be forthcoming. Additionally, the University does not purport to monitor the remarks of individual staff persons in the course of conference presentations as such would likely intrude on their individual prerogatives.

The above notwithstanding, you raise serious questions that call for a review of the SAC program. Such a review will be undertaken and my office will be contacting you to apprise you as to the outcome of the review.

Sincerely,

Lee N. June, Ph.D.
Vice President for Student Affairs and Services
Associate Provost for Academic Student Services & Multicultural Issues
