

NOTICE

For the safety and security of all members of the community, the College has designated the enclosed area to facilitate your planned demonstration. Megaphones are not permitted. Any person leaving the designated area with the intent to protest will be warned that he/she must return to the enclosed area. If that person persists, his/her right to remain on the campus may be forfeited.